

HTML — Task 1

Instructions: Answer all questions. Write HTML code wherever required.

1. What are Tags? Define the Types of Tags.

Write the definition of an HTML tag and explain the different types of tags with examples.

2. Personal Contact Page

Create a Personal Contact Page.

Requirements:

1. Add a link to Google using an absolute URL.
2. Add a link to a local file called resume.pdf using a relative path.
3. Add an Email Me link using mailto:.
4. Add a Call Me link using tel:.
5. Add a link called Home using href="#".

Output:

3. Training Institute Course Structure

Create a Full Stack Development Course Structure using all three types of lists.

Output:

4. Restaurant Menu Webpage

Create a Restaurant Menu webpage using HTML lists.

Requirements:

- Create an Unordered List for Starters.
- Create an Ordered List for Main Course.
- Use an appropriate type for the ordered list.
- Create a Description List (dl) for at least 3 special dishes.
 - <dt> → Dish name
 - <dd> → Short description of the dish
- Use at least 5 items in the Starters and Main Course sections.
- Use suitable headings to clearly separate the sections.

Concepts being tested: ul, ol, dl, li, dt, dd, type.

5. What are Elements?

What are Elements? Give the different types of elements along with examples.

6. Quirks Mode and Standard Mode

What is Quirks Mode and Standard Mode?

7. Purpose of lang="en"

What is the purpose of lang="en" in the HTML structure?

8. HTTP vs HTTPS

Explain the difference between HTTP and HTTPS.